Summer Camp is available Monday through Friday, with the following exceptions:

- Memorial Day (5/29/2023)
  - Independence Day (7/4/2023)
  - Pre-program drop-off occurs from 7:00-9:00 am
  - Post-program pick-up occurs from 5:00-6:00 pm
- Our program closes at 6:00 pm.

Parents are asked not to drop off or pick up children during camp hours (9:00 am-4:00 pm).

* Rising 6th-9th graders may apply for Leader in Training (LIT), or Counselor in Training (CIT) programs.

All parents must complete a Summer Camp application for each child attending the program and return it upon registration. A deposit is required to secure your child's spot in camp. Financial Assistance is available, but limited.

WEEKLY SCHEDULE

Thanks to a collaboration with Camp Friendship, rising 3rd-5th graders will travel on Monday through Friday to Camp Friendship's lakeside property to enjoy water activities, such as canoeing, kayaking, boating, fishing, archery and so much more.

Rising K-2nd graders will travel on Monday through Friday to Steele Creek Park for a day of outdoor activities, splash pad, arts and crafts, sports and more! On Tuesdays and Thursdays, campers will go to the movies, roller skating in the morning, and swim at the YMCA of Bristol's pool in the afternoon. Campers will have several opportunities to travel to Camp Friendship's lakeside property to enjoy both water and land activities.

Summer Camp is a great place to make friends, build relationships, enjoy activities, and to live their best life
